

Name: _____ Gr: _____

Table Laying & Etiquette

1. Define the term Etiquette.
2. When a Host or Hostess has RSVP on an invitation, what does this mean.
3. Why might a host/hostess be concerned if persons do not RSVP before an event.
4. Identify the following types of invitations (1pt each)

5. Explain one role of a good host or hostess.
6. Give 2 pieces of information that all invitations should have.
7. State whether the statement is true or false

7. _____ Informal invitations are written in third person

8. _____ On a formal invitation, the time and dates should be written in out in word form

9. _____ Forks go on the right side and knives on the left

10. _____ Black tie events indicate a formal event

11. Construct a basic table setting, by dragging in the correct place

