Nam	e: Date:
Cont	text Clues
do not Some	Good readers use other parts of the selection to help them understand words they t know. Context clues are words that go before and after an underlined word. times the sentence that follows an unknown word may give the meaning of the If you read them carefully, they can help you figure out what the word means.
Here a	are ways to find context clues (Use the acronym IDEA):
	> Antonyms
	Sometimes we can figure out unknown words because the author will provide the antonym nearby.
	Example: He was generous, not selfish, like his sister.
	Guided Practice
	Read the sentences below. Use the sentence to write the meaning of the word in bold below.
	1. Very heavy rail will damage , not help the plants.
	Meaning:
	2. The large pool was shallow , instead of deep.

Meaning:

Meaning:
4. Too much salt spoiled the soup. It tasted awful.
Meaning:

3. The plane came to a gradual, not sudden stop.

