

Practice 5Night Safari

If you haven't gone on a night safari, you have been (0) missed a wonderful experience. You will sit in an open tram and be (1) drive through the jungle to see (2) its come alive. The 40-minute ride will take you on an amazing adventure to see the animals. You are advised to (3) remaining quiet throughout the tour so you can (4) listens to the sounds of the animals. Torchlights as well as flash photography (5) is not allowed. With only the moonlight, look closely so you can see the animals look for food or frolic. However, if you are (6) will to pay extra, you can opt (7) with a VIP tour. This buggy-ride and walking tour also includes an expert guide (8) whose will give you information on the animals' behaviour and their habitat.

Example: (0) missing

- | | | | |
|----------|----------|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 3. _____ | 5. _____ | 7. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 4. _____ | 6. _____ | 8. _____ |

Practice 6Cell Phone Novel

Have you ever heard of a cell phone novel? A cell phone (0) and mobile novel is a piece of work written on a cell phone (1) use text messaging. It started in Japan and has grown in popularity. (2) On the beginning, the novels were mostly on romantic fiction, written and read (3) from young women. As their popularity (4) spreading to other countries, cell phone novels on a variety of subjects were written. Each chapter in a novel is written (5) from 70 and 100 words. Most of them are not (6) writing in SMS language. Novels are sent directly to the readers (7) along text message, email or online subscription. Readers will receive the novels a chapter at a time. They (8) has dramatic plots with multiple cliff hangers to keep readers waiting for each chapter.

Example: (0) or

- | | | | |
|----------|----------|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 3. _____ | 5. _____ | 7. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 4. _____ | 6. _____ | 8. _____ |