One of my family's favourite places to hang out at the weekends is at 'Bookmark At Jenny's'. It has a great collection of reading materials for all ages. It is a cosy bookstore nestled along in a busy street.

The owner of the bookstore is Jenny Leow. A former librarian and lifetime book lover, Jenny has the weird ability to match a book with a reader. If she doesn't have the book you want at her store, she will gladly do some searching and get it for you. No book is too difficult for Jenny to get hold of.

'Bookmark At Jenny's' is open from 10 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. on weekdays and 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the weekends. When you purchase your first book at her store, Jenny will give you a handmade bookmark.

She has a membership programme too. For a one-time fee of RM50, members will receive news and updates on upcoming sales. They will also receive an RM10 birthday gift voucher when they shop on their birthday. I'm a member too and I look forward to my invitation to the monthly book club meeting. I absolutely enjoy discussing about my favourite books with fellow book lovers.

My family and I love browsing the shelves as we are bound to find an interesting read. There is always an unexpected treasure to be found among the rows of neatly arranged books at 'Bookmark At Jenny's'.
