

Fill in the missing words:

1.

Word bank:

Cold	Winds	Hot
Sea	Temperate
Ocean Currents	Precipitation	Latitude

There are several different climates across the world, each with its own characteristics of temperature and _____. Climate is influenced by a number of factors, including _____, distance from the _____, prevailing _____ and air masses, as well as _____.

There are three broad world climatic zones: _____, found close to the equator; _____, found in the mid-latitudes; _____, found in the high latitudes.

2.

Word bank:

15°C	Winter	Oceanic	Warm
Moderate	Mild	Range	4°C

Ireland has a cool temperate _____ climate. It is a _____ climate, neither too hot or too cold. Rainfall occurs throughout the year, but there is a _____ maximum.

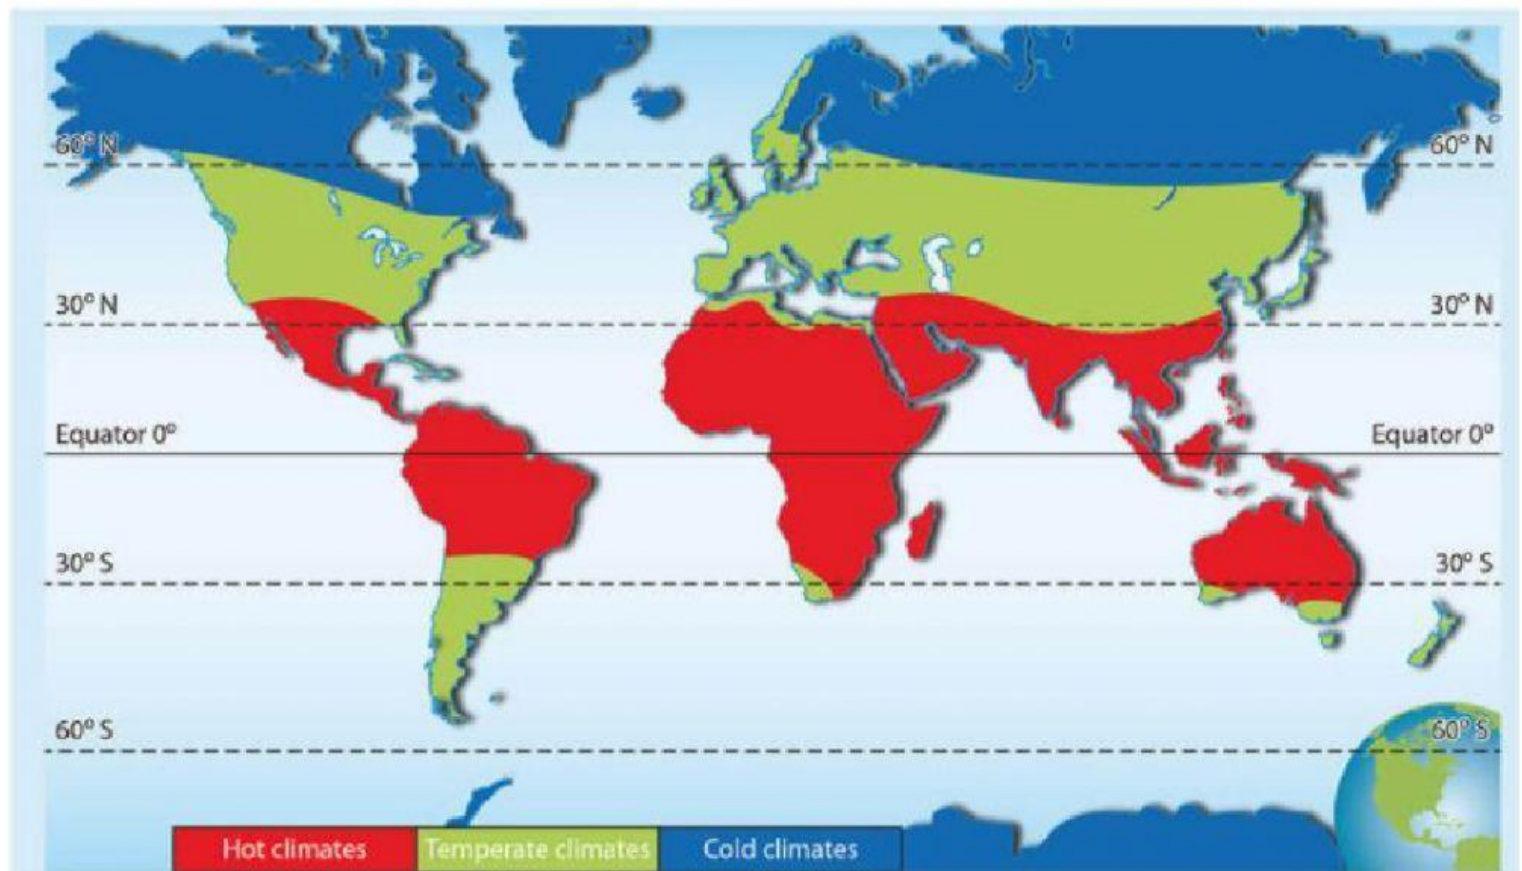

Summers are _____, averaging _____ to 17°C, while winters are _____, averaging _____ to 6°C. This gives an annual temperature _____ of about 11°C.

LO: to identify the global pattern of climatic zones

Temperate = Green

Hot= Red

Cold= Blue

Fill in this table with information about the different climatic zones :

	Hot Climates	Temperate Climates	Cold Climates
Are found where?
How many types are there?
What are they called?
Places/ countries with this climate?			