

HAVE GOT czy HAS HOT ? Uważaj – mogą pojawić się przeczenia.

1. I ..... a brand-new car.
2. My friend ..... a new house.
3. The workers ..... a lot of work.
4. Patrick ..... a pet cat.
5. Shila ..... a used book.
6. Shaun ..... a big problem.
7. We ..... a small house in the country.
8. My uncle ..... a lorry.
9. .... (you) a pen ?
10. .... ( Mrs Blake) two dogs ?
11. Mark Anderson..... a new Rolex watch.
12. Mr and Mrs Nelson ..... a big house by the lake.
13. My father ..... a Mitsubishi. It's a Ferrari.
14. Mr and Mrs Dominic ..... a restaurant in Hollywood.
15. Clare..... a kitten.
16. Jerremy and I ..... a lot of money. We can't go on holidays this year
17. ....( you) any questions ?
18. You and I ..... lots in common.
19. My brother .....blue eyes. He's got green.
20. A shark ..... very strong jaws.
21. Kathy ..... long curly hair.
22. My best friend..... a scooter. She's got a motorbike.
23. ....( your sister) long or short hair?
24. My cousin ..... a colorful parrot. It can talk.
25. Look ! That child ..... a kite!
26. Peacocks..... beautiful feathers in the tails.

UWAGA!

Have you got any cheese? / I haven't got any cheese. (British English)

Do you have any cheese? / I don't have any cheese. (American English)