

2  Listen to some people speaking and write the words or phrases you hear which mean the same as the phrases below.

- 1 pregnant women _____
- 2 has a higher value _____
- 3 worries about the environment _____
- 4 studies disagree about that _____
- 5 not earning much money _____
- 6 a very young child _____
- 7 looking after their children _____

3  You will hear a radio interview with a woman called Susie Wright, who is the health correspondent for a radio station. For questions 1-7, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

- 1 Why did the Finnish government decide to offer the baby box to all mothers?
 - A Too many families couldn't afford the things they needed.
 - B They wanted all expectant mothers to receive health care.
 - C Doctors complained that the original scheme was unfair.
- 2 Mothers can receive a baby box
 - A only for their first child.
 - B only if they pay for the second or third box.
 - C every time they have a child.
- 3 How have the contents of the box changed over time?
 - A Some items have changed because of ecological concerns.
 - B There are fewer things in the box now than there used to be.
 - C The boxes always contain the latest materials.
- 4 What cultural benefits have the boxes had?
 - A Finnish children are happier than children in other nations.
 - B The standard of reading in Finnish children has improved.
 - C There has been a change in family sleeping habits.
- 5 What does Susie say about Finnish babies sleeping outside?
 - A Babies often sleep outside except in winter.
 - B Babies can sometimes catch diseases from sleeping outside.
 - C Sleeping outside is thought to be good for children's health.
- 6 How do Scandinavian parents react to extremely cold temperatures?
 - A Children are never left outside in temperatures lower than -10 degrees.
 - B Parents differ in the temperature limit they think is healthy.
 - C They are never concerned about the cold weather.
- 7 Susie says that the tradition of putting babies outside to sleep
 - A seems to improve the quality of their sleep.
 - B has been proved to improve children's health.
 - C will probably change in future years.

DOWNLOAD

If you are unsure of an answer, miss out that question and move on to another one, otherwise you might miss the answer to that one too.

TASK 3	Question Number	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
	Answer							