

Name: _____

October 13, 2021

CW

Bible Study Tools

Read Luke 10:25–37 in your Bible. Use the study tools on this page to complete the exercises.

2. Which city do all main roads lead to?

3. Which two references in the concordance for the word neighbor mention love?

4. According to the Bible commentary, what was another word for lawyer?

5. How many feet in elevation did the road from Jerusalem to Jericho drop along its course?

6. What often happened to travelers on this road?

7. Why was the Samaritan's compassion for a Jew so shocking?

CONCORDANCE

Neighbor

Jeremiah 31:34	every man teach his n
Matthew 5:43	You shall love your n
Luke 10:29	And who is my n
Romans 13:9	You shall love your n as yourself

BIBLE COMMENTARY

Luke 10:25–37. The lawyer—also called a scribe—was supposedly an expert in the Law and was likely trying to trap Jesus in His words.

Luke 10:30. The road from Jerusalem down to Jericho was dangerous, dropping about 3,300 feet over the course of 17 miles. Thieves often attacked and robbed travelers along this road.