Task 3 D

1. Infants weight generally _____ at 6 months.

a) doubles
b) triples
c) quadruples
d) remain same

2. Teething can be painful process. Which of the following is a symptom of teething?

a) Can refuse food or drool a lot
b) increased desire for liquid
c) coughing and fever
d) all of these

3. _____ are abilities that depend on use and control of muscles

a) vocal skills
b) multipurpose skills
c) motor skills
d) hand skills

4. the ability to judge if objects are nearer or farther away than other objects, is not present at birth.

a) object permanance
b) depth perception
c) motor skills
d) locomotion

5. Infants show preference for _____ taste

a) salty
b) savory
c) sour
d) sweet

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Babies develop hand-eye coordination: Move hands and fingers in relation to what is seen. It is essential for what activities?

a) Eating
b) Catching a ball
c) Coloring
d) Tying shoes
e) all of these

7. Primary teeth begin to usually appear between _____ months of age

a) 6-7
b) 3-4
c) 2-3
d) 8-9

8. Babies develop physically Near to far: trunk outward. Which order activities would be correct in a baby's physical development?

a) Grab with palm of hand, Pick up with thumb and fingers, Wave arms
b) Wave arms, Grab with palm of hand, Pick up with thumb and fingers
c) Grab with palm of hand, Wave arms, Pick up with thumb and fingers,
d) none of these

9. Infants learn about the world the most by using their

a) nose
b) mouth
c) hands
d) toes

10. Of course if baby does not develop precisely along the timeline

a) it isn't anything serious. Don't worry if your baby develops these things at different times.
b) mom and dad should panic and be worried!
c) something is wrong with your baby. Call the doctor right away!
d) they are off track.

LIVEWORKSHEETS