

Read the text and then do the comprehension questions below:

VIETNAM

Vietnam is a country in South East Asia. About 90 million people live there. The countries it joins are Cambodia, Laos and China. The capital city of Vietnam is Hanoi. Vietnam used to be two countries, North Vietnam and South Vietnam. The two countries were joined in 1975 after a long war. The capital of South Vietnam was Saigon, which is now called Ho Chi Minh City.

Rice is the most important crop grown in Vietnam. Vietnam sells more rice to other countries than any other country except Thailand. About 43 million tonnes of rice are grown each year.

Questions: Multiple Choices

1) How many countries are joined to Vietnam?

- a) Three
- b) Two
- c) Five
- d) One

2) When did North and South Vietnam join to make one country?

- a) 1973
- b) 1975
- c) 1977
- d) 1979

3) What is the capital city of Vietnam called?

- a) Saigon
- b) Ho Chi Minh City
- c) Hanoi
- d) Yangon

4) What is the most important crop grown in Vietnam?

- a) Corn
- b) Rambutan
- c) Rice
- d) Sugar

5) What were the two countries that joined to make Vietnam called?

- a) South Vietnam and East Vietnam
- b) West Vietnam and East Vietnam
- c) North Vietnam and West Vietnam
- d) North Vietnam and South Vietnam

6) What was the capital city of South Vietnam called?

- a) Ho Chi Minh City
- b) Saigon
- c) Vientiane
- d) Hanoi

True or False

7) Vietnam is joined to China, Myanmar and Cambodia.

True

False

8) About 33 million tonnes of rice are grown each year in Vietnam.

True

False

9) Vietnam is joined to Laos.

True

False

10) About 60 million people live in Vietnam.

True

False