Homework Practice

Activity #1: Get it right – Choose the correct word for each the pictures below.

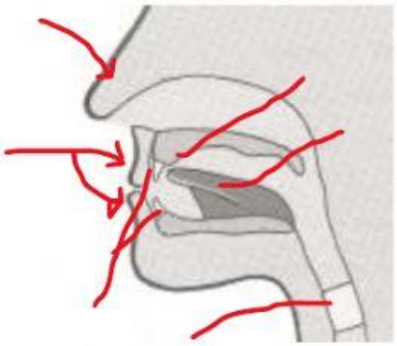

In your own words describe what Cultural Awareness means:

Activity #2: Pronunciation

- Label the parts of the diagram correctly.
- Review the Dialogues from Lesson #1. Listen to the recordings and practice each dialogue with a classmate.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- Practice pronouncing the words in the list below. Make sure you are placing your tongue in the proper location when you say each word.

sank	sin	tensely	bass
sum	sought	bossy	advice
Saturday	useful	force	See you Saturday

Activity #3: Cultural Awareness

Read the story below that describes a meeting between the foreign teacher Sarah and her student Chen Li. This story illustrates the importance of being Culturally appropriate in our conversations. After you read the story answer the questions that follow. You can help each other by discussing your ideas with a classmate before you write your answers.

The foreign teacher, Sarah, has invited her parents to visit her in China. During their visit Sarah and her parents see Chen Li on campus so Sarah introduces her parents to Chen Li. While the four of them are talking, Chen Li makes a comment about Sarah's weight. Sarah's face became very red and she remained silent for the remainder of the conversation. Chen Li felt there was something strange about the silence because Chen Li was just being friendly and honest.

1. What did Chen Li say to Sarah?

2. How did Sarah respond?

3. What 'small talk' topic did Chen Li use in this situation?

4. Why did Sarah responded so negatively to Chen Li's comment about her weight.

Don't forget to click "FINISH"

LIVEWORKSHEETS