Firstly

Overall

It seems to me

I think

In my opinion

..... that I will enjoy doing challenging activities. I will discuss two activities that I would like to do, which are parkour and abseiling.

Why do I choose parkour?, I can do this activity alone or with friends. It can be done anywhere like in the school compound or at the neighbourhood playground., I will be able to perceive the familiar environment and imagining it into a potential challenge for myself where I try to get from one place to another by running, climbing, swinging, vaulting, jumping, rolling and more., it certainly challenges me and makes me feel accomplished when I am able to complete the obstacles.

Another activity that I would like to try is abseiling. that the idea of gliding down a steep cliff with only a rope to help you down is a thrill., this activity will help to boost my confidence by being able to do things on my own without any help. I hope to try this out at Subang Jaya or Putrajaya Indoor Challenge Parks.

....., doing challenging activities is good to build up my confidence and belief in myself that I am able to accomplish anything that I may face in life.
