

USA QUIZ - PT1

My economy is so large that if I were a separate country, my economy would be in the top 10 of the world. In 1848, the discovery of a precious mineral at Sutter's Mill brought many people across the country to me, and the lowest physical point in the United States is in my southeast area. What state am I? Nevada California New Mexico In 1653, the first permanent settlements were established by English colonists near my rivers. I am also the home of the first Krispy Kreme doughnut. What state am I? Georgia North Carolina Delaware I am a leading state in milk and cheese production. I am also the state where the first sundae was invented, in 1881. What state am I? Michigan Illinois Wisconsin I was explored by Meriwether Lewis and William Clark in 1805 and 1806, and mining and lumbering* have been an important part of my economy for years. In 1922, TV was invented in one of my cities. What state am I? South Carolina Louisiana Indiana *bois de construction I have the only active diamond mine in the My people live, on average, five years longer than United States. Hot Springs National Park residents of any other state. I was nicknamed the and Buffalo River in the Ozarks are my "Sandwich Islands" and I am the birthplace of major tourist attractions. What state am I? president Obama. What state am 1? Maine Arkansas Iowa Hawaii Florida Washington I am home to one of the busiest airports in the world, JFK International Airport, and the largest stock exchange in the world. I am a leader in manufacturing, foreign trade, commerce, banking, and theatrical production. My nickname is the "Empire State" What state am I? Massachusetts New York New Jersey

