

Grammar: Future Tense

Future Tense

1. We used be going to when we have planned to do something.

Example: We are going to play football this evening.

2. We used will to talk about

- What we think will happen in the future.
- What we want to do in the future.

Exercise 1: Fill in the blanks with suitable sentences from the box.

He's going to see doctor.

I'm going to feed it

I'm going to bed now.

I'm going to wash them.

Mother is going to call the plumber.

She is going to the post office now

1. I'm tired. _____
2. The cat is hungry. _____
3. My shoes are dirty. _____
4. Jon is not feeling well. _____
5. The sink is clogged. _____
6. Dania wants to buy some stamps. _____

Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with simple future tense of the verbs in bracket.

1. They _____ (not,bake) a cake for the party.
2. We _____ (call) you when we get there.
3. We _____ (get) married in two years time.
4. They _____ (climb) Mount Everest when they are ready.
5. The minister _____ (lunch) the book next week.
6. The teacher _____ (take) the pupils to the zoo next week.