

Crowlie. The place of peace and quiet.
Game “Houses”

Fill in the gaps with missing words. Check the text!

When Clumsy opened his eyes he saw a fire-place and _____ warm and dry in the house.

He _____ in the bed.

There was not _____ thunderstorm, cold rain and strong wind.

It was a _____ place.

He _____ not know how he could get here.

But he _____ safe.

He looked around and _____ the owl.

She was _____ a cup of hot tea with blackberry jam.

There _____ some honey in the jar on the table, too.

The little bear was happy not to listen to the _____.

He smiled _____ himself.

I put there some _____ herb.

It _____ be tasty.

You _____ drink it or you can get ill.

What happened _____ me?

It was so frightening that I fell on the ground and _____ move.

I saw you _____ to my house when there was a lightning.

I like _____ thunderstorm from my window and drinking hot tea in the warm house.

When I saw you I _____ that it was not good to walk in the storm so I brought you here.

He is _____ writing in his book

The Great Changes that _____ happen in the wood.

And he is _____ to finish before it is too cold.

When the little raven was young and silly he _____ a Magic Book.

There was summer around and the grass and the trees _____ green but he wanted to colour them.

He _____ to see the bright world of different colours.

And he began _____ in the book all Changes he wanted to see.

But the leaves _____ not live in yellow for too long and they fell on the ground.

Then _____ cold winds and the winter...

Since that time he _____ write The Great Changes in his book every year in order not to break usual course of events.

He was _____ up with the Magic Book forever.