

Listen and for questions 1-8, choose the correct answer A, B or C. ...

- 1 Which genre does The Iron Lady belong to? ...
 - A political thriller
 - B biographical film
 - C political satire
- 2 The Iron Lady may not be completely accurate because ...
 - A the film would be too long.
 - B the director was in a bad mood.
 - C it was a non-fiction story.
- 3 When did Margaret Thatcher become a politician? ...
 - A as a teenager
 - B in the 1950s
 - C in the 1970s
- 4 What makes it difficult for the journalist to praise Alexandra Roach as much as Meryl Streep? ...
 - A Meryl Streep is a more famous actress.
 - B Alexandra Roach gave too emotional a performance.
 - C Thatcher was not as well-known when she was young.

- 5 What made the film's characters more believable? ...
- A set design
 - B the actors' natural looks
 - C make-up effects
- 6 How were controversial events of Thatcher's leadership shown in the film? ...
- A They were not included.
 - B They were presented without any detail.
 - C They were given in great detail.
- 7 The journalist suggests that the scene of Thatcher buying a carton of milk was ...
- A unusual for a former Prime Minister.
 - B to show how expensive things have become.
 - C used to acknowledge something Thatcher had done.
- 8 Which people might not like the film? ...
- A conservative party supporters
 - B women
 - C conservative party opposers

2 Listen again and fill in the gaps. CHECK ...

The Blue Note

John Ledley presents the TV 1) The Blue Note.

John first heard Tom Waits playing when 2) .

Among his collection he has 3) , released in 1973.

The last time Waits had appeared live in England was 4) .

John first interviewed Waits when he was in 5) .

Waits appeared in London after 6) since he last performed there.

John watched Waits live without paying for 7) .

John found Waits' performance quite 8) .

Waits played some of his old songs on 9) .

Waits is planning to release the performance as 10) .