

1. Complete these sentences.

- Singing that has only one part is called
- Non-religious music is also called music.
- is related to key and tonality.

2. What type of singing does each picture show? Match.

Gregorian chant

Minstrels and troubadours

Renaissance polyphony

3. What were the musicians who performed secular music in medieval cities, castles and palaces called?

4. Find the error in this sentence. Then write the correct sentence.

In the 16th century, the Gregorian chant led to great development in instruments.

5. Complete the explanation of this compound time signature.

6 \Rightarrow Each bar has  quavers. Each beat can be divided into  parts.

8 \Rightarrow A semibreve is divided into  parts. One eighth of a semibreve is  .

6. Put these voices in order from highest to lowest. Which are female voices and which are male.

Mezzo-soprano

soprano

baritone

tenor

contralto

bass

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

Female voices

Male voices