Reading

Read the texts and match the questions (1-4) to the texts (A-C). Two questions match the same text.

A. Common Ground is a lovely café on Wandsworth Common in South London, next to a cricket pitch. On the menu are delicious sandwiches, cakes and warm dishes for lunch to choose from. Inside, you can sit on comfortable sofas and relax while your children enjoy the play area with its toys and games. Best of all, nothing on the menu costs more than £10.

B. Inn the Park is a restaurant near the lake in St James' Park. All the food is locally produced so good for the environment. The children's menu is varied and not just the usual burger or nuggets with chips. It offers options such as leg of chicken or fish cakes which are served with mashed potatoes and vegetables for a nutritious meal.

C. The Pavilion Tea House can be found in Greenwich Park. They serve delicious, hot food with the usual children's menu. You can spend the afternoon relaxing and looking at the wonderful view of the river or, if you are in a hurry, the service is quick and there are plenty of salads, pies and tasty dishes that can be eaten immediately.

Which restaurant is best for someone who...

1. wants their children to eat more healthily?
2. is worried about money?
3. is worried about their child being bored during the meal?
4. doesn't want to have to wait long?

spicy	sweet

I enjoy cooking. I'm not a very good 1. but I'm getting better. I always cook the Sunday dinner. We have two 2., a starter and a main course. Last week, we had vegetable soup to start with followed by chicken and potatoes. I cooked the chicken in the oven and made a nice salad to go with it. I 3. the potatoes in water. They are tastier when they are cooked in oil but it's healthier to cook them in water. We never have a dessert after our meal because I don't like 4. things like cakes or ice creams.
