

ENGLISH YEAR 6

Choose the correct answer:

SIMPLE SENTENCES or COMPOUND SENTENCES.

Which are compound sentences?

- He has been saving RM3.00 from his pocket money for ten weeks.
- Savings means you will have more money, for you will get profits.
- You will get a free money box.

These sentences describe the picture below. Identify the type of sentences.

1. The lady is arranging flowers.
2. The lady is a florist and she is arranging a table bouquet.
3. The florist arranges the flowers and puts candles on the table.
4. The arrangement is simple yet attractive.
5. The florist did not bring the plates nor glasses for it is brought by the caterer.

Choose the correct answer:

for and so nor but

1. Jamil couldn't go home _____ he has no money to buy a ticket.

2. Brenda walked home _____ Sally took a taxi.

3. Azman went to the bakery _____ bought a loaf of bread.

4. Fikri wanted to buy a car _____ he started saving his money.

5. Fahmi doesn't want the red _____ the green T-shirt.