Name: _____ Date: _____

Word Problems with Addition

Solve the following word problems. Enter the correct answer.

1. There are 67 red balloons and 85 purple balloons. How many balloons are there?

   There are _____ balloons.

2. At San Salvador International Airport there are 345 planes in the hangars. There are 694 planes on the field. How many planes are there at San Salvador airport?

   There are _____ planes at San Salvador International Airport.

3. The school's tuck sop served 7,958 bags of chips and 4,305 Hot Pattie. How many snacks were sold altogether?

   _____ snacks were sold altogether.

4. Last week 12,567 children rode the bus to the park. 56,245 children walked to the park and 23,560 children were brought to park by their parents. How many children visited the park last week?

   _____ children visited the park last week.

5. There were 234,987 book sin the library. 763,090 more books were donated. How many books were there in all?

   There were _____ books in all?

6. The candy store ordered 5,238,309 chocolates. The following day they increased the order by 1,562,789 chocolates. What is the total amount of chocolate in stock at the candy store?

   The candy store now has _____chocolates in stock?

LIVEWORKSHEETS