What's the MAIN Idea?

IMPORTANT: The distractors are usually true sentences (or facts) from the text. But they are not the main idea.

Watch the following three short films/videos and choose the main idea for each of them.

The Power of Words (1.48 min.)

(click on the blue box to go to the video)

- 1. It is important to help blind people.
- 2. The words you choose to use make a difference.
- 3. People can go up to a blind man and write on his sign.
- 4. It is cold when you sit on the sidewalk in the winter.

Ants (De Lijn - Mieren – ENG) (32 sec.)

(click on the blue box to go to the video)

- 1. Ants communicate and cooperate with each other.
- 2. Anteaters are animals that eat ants.
- 3. Travelling together is safer for everyone.
- 4. Anteaters cannot enter De Lijn busses.

© Naomi Epstein

Love Story in Milk (2.12 min.)

(click on the blue box to go to the video)

- 1. Milk is made in modern factories.
- 2. People of all ages drink milk.
- 3. Only low fat milk can be recycled.
- 4. Recycling is better for the environment.

© Naomi Epstein

