

Listen to each sentence  and select the correct one by clicking on each of them.

1. She quite likes animation films.
2. She quite like animation films.
3. She likes animation films.

1. Do you like green beans?
2. Does he like green beans?
3. Does she like green beans?

1. Does he like spaghetti?
2. Does he likes spaghetti?.
3. Does he love spaghetti?

1. Tina hate detective books.
2. Tina hates detective books.
3. Tina doesn't hate detective books.

1. I really like fish and chips.
2. I don't like fish and chips.
3. I doesn't like fish and chips.

1. I love drama books.
2. I hate drama books.
3. I loves drama books.

1. Kevin and Sandra loves fantasy films.
2. Kevin and Sandra likes fantasy films.
3. Kevin and Sandra love fantasy films.

1. He doesn't likes broccoli.
2. He dosen't like broccoli.
3. He doesn't like broccoli.

1. Rita likes to dance and sing.
2. Rita hates to dance and sing.
3. Rita love to dance and sing.

1. We don't like science fiction films.
2. We didn't like science fiction films.
3. We really like science fiction films.