Activity 1 – study the notes below and use the information to complete the text.

Malaysia is famous for its food because of the different ethnics in the country. Each ethnic has its own special food which represents their culture. Malay's famous food is Nasi Lemak which is commonly eaten during breakfast. Nasi Lemak is made of rice cooked with coconut milk. (1) ....

The most popular food among the Chinese is Mooncake. (2) .... (3) .... On the other hand, the most famous food among the Indians is Thosai. (4) ..... This (5) .... Despite these differences, the Malaysians love to share their food with each other to maintain the unity among them.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 2 - You want to enter the football competition but you are lack of one member. Write an e-mail to your friend to tell him about the competition.

LIVEWORKSHEETS