III. Read and choose.

One of the first novels in the history of literature was written in England in 1719. It was Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe. Daniel Defoe was born in London in the family of a rich man. When Daniel was a school boy, he began to write stories. After leaving school, he worked in his father's shop and wrote articles for newspapers. He visited many countries and met many people. That greatly helped with his writing. In 1719, when Defoe was 16 years old, he wrote the novel Robinson Crusoe which made him famous. Defoe used a true story about a sailor who lived on an island for four years in his book. People liked the novel in English and in many other languages. Daniel Defoe wrote other books but his novel Robinson Crusoe was the most famous.
