

VOCABULARY Complete the sentences

accurately (adv.)	competence (n.)	extracurricular (adj.)	period (n.)
assumption (n.)	consistent with (phr.)	innate (adj.)	select (v.)
colleague (n.)	equipped with (phr.)	nurture (v.)	theoretically (adv.)

1. For our research project, my _____ and I looked at the reasons that some teenagers do well in school.
2. We decided to conduct a second experiment, and we were pleased to see that the new results were _____ the previous ones.
3. _____, getting a college degree should help you get a good job.
4. I'll need more information in order to _____ answer the question.
5. His _____ activities include the school soccer team and the debate club.
6. You should carefully review the information in the guide before you _____ your classes for the term.
7. University classrooms are _____ a lot of technology to enhance students' learning opportunities.
8. The director said she was impressed with the _____ Victor showed in his role as student council president.
9. Good parents will _____ their children's dreams and help them realize their goals.
10. It's easy to make a judgment about someone based on a false _____.
11. Even writers with _____ talent need formal training, too.
12. We often think of the years between childhood and adulthood as a difficult _____.