

Science Year 1

Sense Organ: Sense of Touch

We use our hands to do many things. One of the most common thing we do is to feel objects with our hands. The reason why is because our skin in our hand can help us tell how the object feels.

For example we can tell which object is hard and which is soft by using our hand.

Look at picture below, Choose the correct answer if the object is Soft or Hard.

