

Which plant grows in winter?

Lettuce

Watermelon

Tomato

---

2. Which of these doesn't need sunlight to grow?

Grapes

Corn

Mushrooms

---

3. What is a spade?

A vegetable

A shovel

A bug

---

4. Which one of these makes soil a good home for plants?

Ants

Mold

Worms

---

5. Why are bees good for a garden?

They feed the flowers honey

They pollinate the plants so that they make new plants

They spread food from one flower to another

6. What is loam?

A type of dirt

A foamy pesticide

A fertilizer

7. Can you make new pumpkins out of your Halloween Jack-o-lantern?

Yes

No

8. What is it called when you make a garden of rocks and desert plants?

Zero Garden

There's no such thing

Xeriscape

9. What is the difference between an English Cottage Garden and a French formal garden?

English gardens look like everything just grows wherever and French formal gardens have lots of straight lines and geometric shapes

English cottage gardens have trees and French formal gardens do not

English gardens are only roses and French gardens are only green plants

10. Which plant has enough liquid in it to drink?

Broccoli

Cactus

Cauliflower

---

11. What tool is best for turning over weeds?

Spade

Shovel

Hoe

---

12. What is compost?

Cow poop

Rocks that you take out of the garden

Food garbage

---

13. When is a bad time to water the garden?

Afternoon

Night

Morning

14. What is it called when you dig a tiny ditch from a pond to your garden to move water to your plants?

Creeking

Irrigating

Ditching

