

LISTENING PRACTICE 09

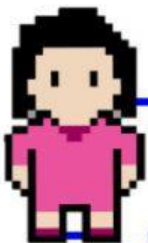

1. Listen and drag

Where did Uncle Robert get each of these things?

2. Listen again and fill in the blanks with words in the box

- You've got some things in this, Uncle Robert. Where did you get that

- The one of the? Well, in my, I have to go to lots of places. I found it in a that I visited last It wasn't I was quite

- It's so

- Those look very, Uncle Robert. gave you those?

- I can't but I got them when I had to visit a Someone gave them to me when I I don't wear them because they're too

- Can I them?

- Sure!

- And wow! That looks like a! When did you buy that?

- When I was working in a The was six years old! You could buy all of things there. I might give it to your

- What's your thing here?
- Well, I some really great music at a I travelled to. Later, at the, I found a shop that sold They were just like the ones a man played in the
- So you bought them!
- Yes. I love them but your says they're too!
- And this is a birthday for your mother. I had a in a nice town in the of a Last week. There's a little there full of things! It's made of! Be with it.
- Don't worry! Mum loves! I'm sure she'll like it.
- Why haven't you this box of? Are they a present, too?
- Yes! I was for you to arrive! I had some in my favourite in London. They tasted so good! These are the They're for you. I got them from the where I stayed last night.
- Wow! Thanks!