

Writing

Remember!

We use There is/are to talk about something that exists or happens that we mention for the first time.

We use It is and They are to refer to something that has already been mentioned or is being talked about now.

There is a pathway over the gorge. It is made of glass.

There are four tourists in the café. They are from Japan.

- A Complete the description of Peter's home town with these words and phrases.

it is there are there is they are when where which who

I live in a market town (1) which is called Ludlow. (2) near the border between Wales and England. The best time to visit Ludlow is in the summer, (3) the Ludlow Festival takes place.

(4) an impressive old castle

(5) visitors can learn about life in the past and watch Shakespeare plays. The actors

(6) take part in the plays are usually very famous.

You can also take a trip by boat along the river, or walk around the riverside gardens. (7) full of flowers in summer. (8) also great restaurants, shops and cafés.

- B Write a description of your village or town. Include relative clauses, There is, There are, It is and They are. Use this plan to help you.

Paragraph 1

Give the name of your town or village and say where it is situated.

Paragraph 2

Talk about what you can see and do there.

Paragraph 3

Talk about other activities or places of interest.

