

DEMUESTRA
PHRASAL VERBS III

20pts.

- I. Rewrite the sentences, separating the phrasal verbs, or write INSEPARABLE if they can't.

- You can take off your coat.
you can take your coat off. ✓

1. Please turn up the music.

2. Can we look up this word in a dictionary?

3. We have to fill in this form.

4. Have you put away the washing yet?

5. I grew up in this neighbourhood.

6. Jerry and I don't really get on.

7. Shall I throw away this empty can?

8. The plane took off noisily.

9. When do we have to give in this homework?

10. Look out! There's ice on the pavement.

II. Rewrite the sentences using pronouns.

- You must switch off the light.
You must switch it off. ✓

1. Could you please take off your shoes?

2. Throw away the rubbish.

3. We need to give in the forms.

4. They've taken away the tables.

5. The fire brigade managed to put out the fire

III. Complete the sentences with the correct adverbs

- Why are you getting off the train here? ✓

1. I don't think these trousers go _____ your shirt.

2. You need to get _____ at the next stop.

3. Iris and I get _____ really well. We're best friends.

4. Have you taken _____ basketball?

5. We need to put these candles _____ before we go to bed.

6. What's going _____ over there?

7. They're giving _____ leaflets at school today.

8. Can you give this dictionary _____ to Paul?

9. You mustn't give _____ trying. I'm sure you'll pass next time.

10. The helicopter took _____ from the field.