01 Photos of One Person

For the photos of one person, the four subjects in the statements are alike but the verbs in them are different. You should therefore listen carefully to the verbs.

Practice Listen and choose the best answer. 01-01

(A) A woman is wearing gloves.

(B) A woman is using a shovel.

(C) A woman is watering a plant.

(D) A woman is arranging flowers.

Attention!

For the photos of one person, the present continuous tense is mostly used to describe the action of the person in each of them, so you have to listen carefully to the verbs in -ing form.

02 Photos of Two People

For the photos of two people, the subjects in the statements may be different because each person may be doing a different action.

Correct answer choices generally describe what the people in the photos are doing together or what each of them is doing. You should thus listen to both the subjects and the verbs in the descriptive statements.

Practice Listen and choose the best answer. 01-04

(A) They are sitting next to each other.

(B) They are signing their names.

(C) They are fixing a computer.

(D) They are looking at a laptop.

Attention!

You may hear the subjects They or The men/women/people and the present continuous tense in the four statements, so you have to listen carefully to the verb that best describes their action.
