Plural of Nouns – Vowel Change, Different Ending & Changing the Word.

Rule: Some Nouns form their Plural by a vowel change, a different ending or by changing the entire word.

Activity

Type the Plural form on the line of the Singular Nouns in the brackets.

1. The _____ are playing in the yard.
(child)

2. The _____ are painting the house.
(man)

3. Three of my _____ are hurting me.
(tooth)

4. My two _____ are sore.
(foot)

5. I saw six _____ in the drain.
(mouse)

6. The five _____ are swimming in the pond.
(goose)

7. There are many _____ at the market.
(person)

8. The girl's head has a lot of _____.
(louse)

LIVEWORKSHEETS