Reading Homework:

Fashion Do or Don't

Should public schools require students to wear uniforms?

NO! A uniform requirement violates, or disregards, the right to freedom of expression. That right is protected by the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. "I think students should choose their own clothing styles, rather than be told to wear a specific uniform," fifth grader Kaylie Vilayvong from Aurora, Missouri, told WR News. Her classmate Wade Fleetwood agrees. "Kids should be allowed to wear different styles of clothes." Some parents are worried about the expense. Elmira would offer uniforms at a price between $16 and $26. "What's the school district going to do for people who can't afford them?" asked one Elmira father at a recent public meeting.
