Form the appropriate word form of the one given in brackets.

The third major problem (1) facing (face) our world today is animal (2) _____ (extinct). Animal species are dying off at a fast rate. There are two main reasons for animal extinction. The first one is caused by humans who have become every animals' most (3) _____ (danger) rival. Humans (4) _____ (care), (5) _____ (ignore) and greed caused many animals to (6) _____ (appear) from our planet. Overhunting and poacher are the threats that lead to animal extinction. In the third world countries animals are hunted for their skins and tusks, thus (7) _____ (danger) the (8) _____ (exist) of those animals. Due to (9) _____ (increase) population, the humans are destroying the animal (10) _____ (habit) in order to increase the (11) _____ (life) are.

Pollution produced by humans and dumped into animals' environment also tends to endanger our species. Animal extinction is (12) _____ (prime) caused by human (13) _____ (active), but there are also natural (14) _____ (fact) which contribute to the (15) _____ (reduce) of animal life. The examples of these factors are (16) _____ (nature) disasters, climate change and (17) _____ (success) competition for (18) _____ (sources) with other species.

Of course, there is no (19) _____ (solve) that helps save animals from the natural factors. But there is a solution to stop the humans from leading to the extinction of animals. Very strict laws should be applied to control and stop (20) _____ (excess) hunting as well as (21) _____ (prohibit) killing animals.

LIVEWORKSHEETS