SENTENCE TRANSFORMATION.

Rewrite the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use the word given without changing it. Use between 2-5 words.

1) The boss didn't really like the employee. IMPRESSION

The employee didn't really the boss.

2) Martin inherited the house after his mother's death. INTO

Martin the house after his mother's death.

3) It was a mistake to go to that pub. HAVE

We to that pub.

4) Robert borrowed my car yesterday. TO

I Robert yesterday.

5) Please send me some more information. GRATEFUL

I you would send me some more information.

6) Why did you sell such a great car? MADE

What such a great car?

7) Tomorrow's conference is postponed and it will be held next month. PUT

Tomorrow's conference has until next month.

8) She prefers watching TV to reading books. RATHER

She read books.

9) In his opinion, these two kinds of art are totally different from each other. COMPARISON

In his opinion, there is these two kinds of art.

10) 'What do you think of the new health centre?' ASKED

She of the new health centre.

11) Fiona doesn't like bananas. She doesn't like grapes either. NOR

Fiona likes grapes.

12) It's believed that he was the most handsome boy in our school. TO

He is the most handsome boy in our school.

LIVEWORKSHEETS