

MUST / MUSTN'T

Exercise I. Match the columns.

1. You mustn't play music here.

2. You mustn't throw rubbish on the street.

3. You must be quiet.

4. You must wear pants.

5. You mustn't swim here.

6. You mustn't park here.

7. You mustn't drop bills.

8. You must walk carefully.

CENTRO DE AUTOACCESO PLANTEL LIC. ADOLFO LÓPEZ MATEOS

Exercise II. Write must or mustn't.

 1. You _____ stop.	 2. You _____ turn off your mobile.
 3. You _____ cross here.	 4. You _____ put rubbish here.
 5. You _____ smoke.	 6. You _____ eat or drink here.
 7. You _____ pay $15.	 8. You _____ drink alcohol.
 9. You _____ take out your dog.	 10. You _____ feed the animals.

Exercise III. Re-write the rules. Use must / mustn't.

Self-access Center Rules

1. Register on the computer

1. You must register on the computer. _____

CENTRO DE AUTOACCESO PLANTEL LIC. ADOLFO LÓPEZ MATEOS

2. Bring in your school ID
3. Don't eat or drink.
4. Be quiet.
5. Don't shout.
6. Take care of material.
7. Be respectful.
8. Don't write on the books.
9. Turn off electrical devices.
10. Don't copy any answers.

2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

Exercise IV. Complete the sentences with must, mustn't or needn't.

1. Engineers _____ wear suits for work, but their clothes must be formal.
2. Students _____ eat during the lessons.
3. You _____ always be on time for work.
4. You _____ eat dessert if you don't want to.
5. Boys and girls _____ be polite to each other.
6. You _____ take a bus, I can take you home.
7. You _____ speak loudly in the library.
8. If you want to study in that university you _____ take an entry exam.
9. The boys _____ come with us, it isn't necessary.
10. You _____ tell mom what happened, or she'll get terribly angry.

Exercise V. Rewrite the sentences so that they have the same meaning. Follow the example.

Example: It's important for you to study hard for the exam. (must)

You must study hard for the exam.

1. Alice needn't have to answer now. (not have to)

2. You are obliged to get a VISA to enter the United States. (have to)

3. It is important that you get a job. (must)

4. It's important that you don't lie. (mustn't)

CENTRO DE AUTOACCESO PLANTEL LIC. ADOLFO LÓPEZ MATEOS

5. You aren't allowed to take photos here. (mustn't)

6. It's compulsory to do the school project. (have to)

7. It isn't necessary for you to call back. (needn't)

Exercise VI. Choose have to, don't have to, must, mustn't, needn't to complete the following sentences

1. I _____ leave early because I have an important appointment.
2. Dad _____ wear a tie, but he wears them because he loves them.
3. I don't like this uniform, but I _____ wear it at work.
4. Teachers _____ begin the lessons on time. It their duty.
5. You _____ smoke here. It's prohibited.
6. You _____ leave now, you can stay a little more.
7. You _____ put sugar in your coffee, the doctor said you can't have any sugar.