

1. Read the text:

Last October I went on holiday to Thailand for two weeks with my girlfriend, Mia. The holiday began well, the weather was great, and we spent two perfect days in Bangkok. But things went wrong when we left Bangkok. I wanted to stay in hostels, which were basic but clean, but Mia said they weren't comfortable, so we _____ in an expensive hotel. I wanted to experience the local culture, but Mia just wanted to go _____. It was awful! I thought I knew Mia very well, but you don't know a person until you travel with them. _____ we arrived home, we decided to break up.

Last _____, my best friend Sue and I booked a holiday in Venice. We rented a small apartment for a week with a fantastic view of the city. At the last moment, another friend, Linda, asked if she could come too. We felt sorry for her because she had problems with her boyfriend.

Venice was magical and the weather was perfect, but the holiday was a disaster for one simple reason: Linda was so mean! She has a good _____ so she's not poor, but she didn't want to _____ for anything! She was always complaining about money. The worst thing was that although Sue and I paid for the apartment, Linda never invited us with a _____ or a drink!

2. Fill in the blank with one word from the box:

(There is one extra word!)

pay - sightseeing - stayed - spring - shopping - coffee - When - job

3. Find in the text one word for each definition below and write them:

_____: an inexpensive lodging facility for usually young travelers that typically has dormitory-style sleeping arrangements and sometimes offers meals and planned activities

_____: to register (something, such as a name) for some future activity or condition (as to engage transportation or reserve lodgings)

_____: not willing to spend money

_____: to say that you are not satisfied with something