

Classify Polygons as Regular and Irregular.

Irregular Polygons are 2-dimensional (2D) shapes of which the sides and interior angles are not the same.

A regular polygon is a shape where all sides are the same length and all the interior angles are the same.

