Fishing is an example of a _____ industry.

Fishing is the act of catching fish. There are three main types of fishing, they are: subsistence, commercial and _____ fishing. Subsistence fishing is fishing done for _____ use. It uses cheap tools such as a line, hook and _____. Commercial fishing is fishing done on _____ scale for a profit. It uses expensive tools such as refrigeration storage. Commercial fisherman uses two main methods when catching fish, they are long line fishing and _____. Areas such as the Great Bahama Bank and _____ are popular fishing grounds. Sports fishing is fishing done for _____. It uses equipment such as nets and yachts. The island of _____ is well known for sports fishing. Fishing benefits The Bahamas greatly. It provides jobs, money, and food. However, fishing in The Bahamas has it challenges such as pollution, overfishing and persons who illegally fish in our waters known as _____.
