Complete the second sentences without changing their meaning. You can ONLY USE NO MORE THAN THREE words.

1. "I spoke to Mary two weeks ago," Charles said.

   Charles said that _____to Mary two weeks before.

2. "Be quiet and start the exam," I told them.

   I told them _____ and start the exam.

3. "I'm very tired after doing three exams today," she said.

   She said that _____ very tired after doing three exams that day.

4. "Could you tell us your name?" they asked.

   They asked me _____ my name.

5. "Don't go out now or you'll be sorry," we ordered her.

   We ordered her _____ out then or we would be sorry.

6. "I lost all my money last Saturday," he said.

   He said that he had lost all his money _____.

7. "Did Mary ask you about the party?" I asked.

   I asked _____asked him about the party.

8. "How much money do you need for that?" she asked.

   She asked how much money _____ for that.

9. "I don't have to eat that till tomorrow," she said.

   She said that she didn't have to eat that till _____.

10. "I have just finished work," Mr.Jones said.

    Mr. Jones said he _____work.

The end!

LIVEWORKSHEETS