

Lesson 3: Introductions & Invitations

- Review small talk topics, pre-closings and partings
- Practice introducing your friends
- Invite your friends to social events
- Practice pronouncing the /θ/ sound

Dialogue 1:

Jim and David have been friends for a long time. Recently David has become friends with a new girl at school, Amy. Listen to their conversation when David introduces Amy and Jim to each other.

How to introduce someone:	Responses:

Dialogue 2:

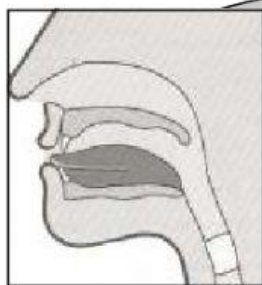

The next day Jim sees David on campus. Listen to their conversation about their dinner plans.

How to offer an invitation:	How to accept an invitation:	How to refuse an invitation:

Box 1:

Thank you but I'm not very ____.

- > thirsty
- > athletic
- > interested in math

Box 2:

Would you like some water?
 Would you like to play tennis this evening?
 Would you like to take a mathematics class?
 Would you like to play soccer tomorrow?
 Would you like some orange juice?

Pronunciation: /θ/

Invitations	Excuses
Birthday party on Thursday	trip to Athens
Mathematics lecture	taking a bath
Thanksgiving dinner at Ethel's	sister Beth's 13 th birthday
Health club	getting teeth cleaned