

Homework Practice

Activity #1: Get it right – Choose the correct word for each the pictures below.

What are the four parts to a basic English in conversation in the correct order:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Activity #2: Pronunciation

- Practice pronouncing the words in the list below. Make sure you are placing your tongue in the proper location when you say each word.

sank	sin	tensely	bass
sum	sought	bossy	advice
Saturday	useful	force	See you Saturday

DONE: _____

- With a partner, practice the Greetings and Pre-Closings along with the proper responses.
Person A: Randomly say one of the Greetings or Pre-Closings.
Person B: Choose the proper response.
Make sure to pay close attention to your pronunciation.

PERSON A

Good to see you again.
Well, I should probably get going.
This has been really fun, but I have to go.
It's nice to see you.
I really must leave now.
It's good to see you.
Long time, no see.
So we'll meet again this weekend?

PERSON B

Responses:

It's so nice to see you too.
I'm sorry you have to leave so soon.
See you this Saturday!

DONE: _____

Activity #3: Create your own

On a piece of paper, create your own English dialogue using what we have learned so far. Your dialogue should meet the following requirements:

1. Your dialogue should be written for 3 people.
2. You can choose the situation (formal or informal).
3. Your dialogue should include appropriate Greetings, Body Part 1: Small talk, Body Part 2: Introduction of friends, Pre-closings, Partings (closings).
4. Practice your dialogue with two classmates before next class.
5. Bring your written dialogue with you to our next class.

Don't forget to click "FINISH"