

Review Passive Voice

Active or Passive

Read the sentences. Choose A for "Active" or P for "Passive"

1		The flights have been booked. A P	2		The witness has been questioned. A P
3		The crew has boarded the plane. A P	4		The man has worked for the government. A P
5		The code has been read. A P	6		People have studied the map. A P
7		Fingerprints have been seen. A P	8		Papers have been stolen. A P
9		Someone has taken the box. A P	10		The detectives have been rewarded. A P

Rewrite the sentence

Change the active sentences into passive sentences.

1 Someone's eaten my sandwich!
My sandwich has been eaten.

2 Someone has booked the train tickets.

3 Someone has investigated the case.

4 Someone has opened the door.

5 Has someone read the letter?

6 Someone has answered the phone.

