NAME:_____ DATE:_____

THE TEETH

1a. This an adult's tooth. What type of tooth is shown below? _____

2. Drag the following labels to the tooth above.

CROWN CEMENT DENTINE ENAMEL GUM JAWBONE PULP CAVITY ROOT

3a. How many teeth should an adult human have? _____teeth

3b. How many teeth should a human child have? _____teeth

4. Name the four types of human teeth.

_____ _____ _____ _____

5. The following pictures show ways to care for the teeth. Drag the correct label to each picture.

| Eat crunchy fruits and veg | Floss between teeth | Visit dentist regularly | Brush with toothpaste |
|---|---|---|---|

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
|  |  |  |  |
| | | | |

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. A cavity can be caused in the way described below. Drag the numbers below to the correct steps in order below.

| 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|

_____ The acids destroy the enamel and create a cavity.

_____ Sweet sticky food are eaten and not removed from teeth by brushing.

_____More food is eaten and sticks in the cavity.

_____ Bacteria in the mouth feed on the food and produce acids as waste.

_____ The cycle continues until the cavity reaches the pulp and causes pain where the nerves are located.

_____ Bacteria produce more acids that make the cavity larger.

LIVEWORKSHEETS