

Economic Prosperity in the U.S. (1920s)

Decide whether each of the follow statements is TRUE or FALSE based on the documentary Warring and Roaring 1914-1929. Type T or F.

1. In 1914 Woodrow Wilson feared the American people would be drawn into Europe's war.
2. WW1 is also known as the Great War.
3. In 1914 proper laws existed to protect workers.
4. Wilson insisted on remaining neutral because most Americans had ties to the European countries fighting during WW1.
5. Wages decreased in America during WW1.
6. Wilson was pressured to enter the war in 1918.
7. Americans supported the League of Nations.
8. The 1920s has been referred to as the 'restless decade'.
9. Americans feared communism.
10. Strikes and race riots became common throughout the country.
11. President Warren Harding was a democrat.
12. The Model T became the number one luxury item.
13. Writers during the decade embraced the changing value system.
14. Labour saving devices were popularized during the period.
15. Farmers were producing a surplus of crops.
16. President Calvin Coolidge was sympathetic to the plight of farmers.
17. The Scopes Trial was also referred to as The Monkey Trial.
18. There were more than enough Prohibition agents to enforce the law.
19. Herbert Hoover supported Prohibition.
20. Mass selling led to the Stock Market Crash.