History Maker

Can you my heartbeat?

Tired of feeling never enough

I my eyes and myself

That my dreams will come true

There'll no more darkness

When you in yourself, you are unstoppable

Where your destiny lies, dancing on the blades

You set my heart on fire

Don't stop us now, the moment of truth

We were born to history

We'll make it happen, we'll turn it around

Yes, we were born to make history

Born to make history

Bo-bo-born to make history

Don't us now, the moment of truth

We were born to make history

We'll make , we'll turn it around

Yes, we were born to make history

We were born to make history

We were born to make history

Yes, we were born to make history
