AN OLD HOUSE

Last winter holiday I was in Colón, Entre Ríos. I was in a small hotel with my family. Near the hotel there was a small old house that was on sale. I _____ it very much so one day after lunch I decided to go and see the house alone. I _____ at the map of the city and studied the way. I _____ for ten minutes, I stopped to buy some sweets and finally I _____. When I was in front of the house, I clapped my hands but nobody _____ . The house was empty. There was a big garden around it and there were a lot of tall trees in this garden so it was very dark. I tried and _____ the door and I entered the house. Inside it was terrible!!! It was a mess, very dark, very dirty and full of cats. The cats were beautiful, some of them were big and fat and some were very small and thin. They were all different colours. But there was a horrible smell. Suddenly, there was a noise, a terrible woof, and an enormous dog appeared!! All the cats _____ immediately! And I started to run, very, very fast!! I arrived at the hotel in no time. Then, my husband _____ me: ""Do you want to go and see that old house that you like?" I answered "No, thank you!! I don´t like it any more!!"
