

As well as / instead of

Use as well as OR instead of to complete the following sentences:

- 1- ----- Arabic, I would like to study English
a- As well as                      b- Instead of                      c- Both are correct
- 2- At school I am good at Maths ----- science.
a- as well as                      b- instead of                      c- both are correct
- 3- I'd like to have more History lessons ----- Art, I can't stand Art.
a- as well as                      b- instead of                      c- both are correct
- 4- Ali is good at Painting, photography ----- swimming.
a- as well as                      b- instead of                      c- both are correct
- 5- My brother is quite good at languages. He speaks German ----- Arabic.
a- as well as                      b- instead of                      c- both are correct
- 6- We learn writing, reading, Science and Maths ----- History.
a- as well as                      b- instead of                      c- both are correct
- 7- We drink fresh water----- juice; juice is not good for your health.
a- as well as                      b- instead of                      c- both are correct
- 8- We play football ----- basketball.
a- as well as                      b- instead of                      c- both are correct.
- 9- Nowadays people often send emails ----- letters because emails are much quicker.
a- as well as                      b- instead of                      c- both are correct

Good - luck