

Grandmother's Coins

Adam and his brothers often (1) their grandmother during the school holidays. On each (2), she would give them some coins.

One day, Adam's grandmother (3) the children together. He said, 'Let's have a competition to see who can manage her money wisely. At the end of this year, tell me how you've used your money.'

The children were very excited. Alan used his money to buy and sell things. He made a lot of money. However, he began to (4) her money on expensive things for himself. Soon, he used up all his money.

Adam put all the coins his grandmother gave him into a money box with a red border. He (5) the box under her bed to (6) it safe. At the end of the year, he dusted the box and showed the coins to his grandmother.

Anderson used the money to buy breads, cucumbers, tomatoes, tinned sardines and onions. He (7) delicious sandwiches and sold them to his friends. He put the money he (8) into the bank.

At the end of the year, their grandmother said, 'The winner is...'

Show the missing words in the story by writing the numbers in ().

gathered ()

spend ()

visited ()

keep ()

visit ()

hid ()

earned ()

made ()

Answer the questions

Who do you think is the winner? Why do you think so?

