

Identifying and writing four kinds of sentences

 There are four kinds of sentences. each one does something different.

- *A declarative sentence tells something. It is a statement and ends with a period.
- *An interrogative sentence asks something. It is a question and ends with a question mark.
- *An imperative sentence tells someone to do something. It is a command and ends with a period.
- *An exclamatory sentence shows strong feeling. It is an exclamation and ends with an exclamation mark.

Circle the correct kind of sentence.

1.- Our family is not going on vacation this year.

Interrogative Exclamatory Imperative Declarative

2.- Did you wash your hands after playing outside?

Interrogative Exclamatory Imperative Declarative

3.- Quiet down in the back of the bus!

Interrogative Exclamatory Imperative Declarative

4.- Winter is my favorite time of the year.

Interrogative Exclamatory Imperative Declarative

5.- Where is the House of Assembly located?

Interrogative Exclamatory Imperative Declarative

Identifying and writing four kinds of sentences

Place the correct punctuation at the end of each sentence.

Identify each sentence as either declarative, interrogative, imperative or exclamatory.

- 1.- Which doctor did you go for your back pain _____
- 2.- How many students are there in your class _____
- 3.- Who was calling on the phone _____
- 4.- Remember what the new password is _____
- 5.- May I have a clean plate _____
- 6.- Wow _____ What a beautiful rose _____
- 7.- Move the table as soon as possible _____
- 8.- My dad works in that building _____
- 9.- I failed the math exam _____ I'm very sad _____
- 10.- What time should I arrive at the airport _____
- 11.- I am not going with you _____
- 12.- Grandma says we are going on vacation soon _____
- 13.- Please tell me he is not wearing beads _____
- 14.- What an amazing time it must have been _____
- 15.- Try harder _____